

Hi Chrissy,

I'm out of the office but wanted to at least respond. What is our loss is another's gain. I'm sad to hear this news for us but happy for you as you embark on this next exciting opportunity.

We couldn't have opened without you and couldn't think of a better person to help provide the lifetime of memories related to this important milestone in our organization's history.

I know the volunteers, team and community will miss your presence. If Paco hasn't already schedule something this week, I'd love to debrief with you and discuss what we can do to set up the next person for success, and any other thoughts you have on volunteers, process, etc.

Thank you for being such an important part of the team.

Talk soon,

Sari
